HATFIELD URGED

To Have West Virginia Represented at the Panama City Exposition Next Year.

(SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM)
CHARLESTON, Oct. 25.—With a view of interesting West Virginia in having representation at the proposed Panama National Exposition to be held in Panama City from November 1914, to April, 1915, Don Ramon F. Acevedo, director general of the national exposition, in commemoration of the discovery of the Southern seas, has addressed a letter to Governor Hatfield enclosing a letter written by Richard L. Metcalf, head of the department of civil administration, at Ancón, Canal Zone, urging all state and commercial bodies the importance of being at this exposition.

It is urged that the exposition will afford an opportunity for a meeting between the commercial interests of the North American half of the continent with those of Europe and South America.
